A Gaming Story.

The following story is told by a German paper of a young man who had squandered at the gaming table of one of the German Baths his entire fortune, amounting to about eight hundred thousand francs! He had lost successively, his park, chateau, city mansion, and country house; and there remained to the unfortunate gamester, but one, all his estates only a single spot of ground—a small orange plantation—which he had carefully excepted from his other stakes. The winner (for his antagonist throughout had been the same person) was an Englishman, phlegmatic and unsocial in appearance, but whose curiosity was aroused at the solicitude of the rash youth for the preservation of his dilapidated and seemingly useless house, containing a few boxes of orange trees.

"What are you going to do with this?" he asked; "let us play for it."

"Never!" replied the young man. "This orangery is a souvenir, a relic of my childhood. My mother has passed many hours there with me. I may die there; I may try to live there—but I would blow out my brains rather than stake on cards a single flower of those trees!"

"It was just one blossom that I was about to propose as a stake. Since you have nothing else, I will play with you for that—a simple orange blossom. Will you consent to it?"

"But what could you wager on your side against a flower, if I should consent to play?"

"O, a mere trifle, of course. I, too, would sacrifice a little sentiment. Here is an autograph, for instance, which I will deposit as a wager in the hands of a third person."

The young man laughed and yielded. Notwithstanding his filial sentiment, he saw no profanation in the offering of a flower to Chance, the god who had served him so ill. As the game was about to commence, the Englishman said to the young Frenchman—

"You swear, on your honor, if you win, to accept the stake, however ridiculous it may appear to you?"

"I swear—because I have confidence in you, my lord."

"Cards were brought, the game commenced, and in a few minutes the young man had gained the mysterious autograph. He received it with some emotion; but how greatly was it increased, when he read a donation, in regular form, of the eight hundred thousand francs he had lost! The blush of shame mounted to his face. He protested—he refused—he declared that the bargain was null!

"I have your word of honor," replied the Englishman, smiling. "The agreement was in earnest. If I had won, I should have claimed the orange blossom! You thought more of your orange trees, for you would not stake them. Then of the eight hundred thousand francs. The match was equal."

After two hours of debate, a court of honor having examined into and weighed the affair coolly, decided that the Frenchman could accept—and he finally did so, on condition that Lord Z— would remain his dearest friend.

WHEAT.—The New York Times says the grain crops of the Northwest cannot be transported to the Eastern ports before the closing of the Erie canal by ice, and that the demand for exportation to England and France must soon be very much greater than the supply. As but a state of affairs exists in Canada, where although the crops are good, they are not likely to find their way to the coast, owing to an unaccountable lack of confidence and energy among the growers and traders. The Montreal Advertiser says:

A very important question to Canada just now is, who shall move the grain crop? There has been a large crop secured in Canada West; there is a large fleet arriving from England seeking freight; but there are no buyers of grain, and the present prospect is that the crop will remain in the hands of the growers, and the shipping will have to return without cargoes. The large houses in Montreal which have hitherto been the chief buyers and shippers of grain, made enormous losses on their Winter and Spring purchases, and are either not able or willing to purchase to arrive, although they would be willing to buy in this market.—Sac. Union.

Foreign Interference

The Southern rebels have held the opinion that foreign nations would interfere in the present civil war in this country, and put down the north, for the purpose of returning a supply of cotton for their manufacturers. The friends of the rebels in the north, satisfied that the rebels would be put down, and the power of the government be extended over the whole country, have been and are still most anxious for foreign interference—Mr. Stark's paper of this city, yesterday, has a long article, which he says is very democratic, written by H. J. Jewett, of Ohio, in which this idea is strenuously insisted on—That democrat, which Mr. Stark's paper endorses, sees no hope for the success of the secession party in the north—which he calls the democratic party—except by the humiliation and destruction of the government—Mr Jewett thus expresses his views:

"We have now the most indubitable evidence that the state of things in this country is looked to by all the principal governments of Europe with the greatest anxiety and solicitude. In my opinion these governments will intervene, unless the war is brought to a speedy termination."

It may be that England, France and Russia, may unite and sustain the South—and build up a republic there based on negro slavery, for the purpose of weakening this nation and for the further purpose of obtaining supplies of cotton: but we do not believe a word of it. England, France and Russia desire the United States to remain one nation, and will not interfere in the present rebellion. Mr. Stark's editor may make up his mind to that. Our intelligence from France is all to this effect—that the French Emperor and the French people desire the rebellion to be put down, and the sooner the better. The English government will not interfere in the contest. Her people would not permit her government to interfere in behalf of the establishment of a slave government. England has expended millions to put down slavery, and she is not in love with it now. The Russian Government has given its opinion in regard to the American question, through Prince Gotshakoff, in these words—

"That the American Union is essential to the Universal Political Equilibrium."

We have been struck with the comments of Everett upon this remark. He says that in this expression the assertion is made that "the integrity of the United States is essential to the equilibrium of the world. Russia understands it so, and hence stretches out her warm hand to us," and goes on to say—"The Emperor Alexander is well aware that if the United States are broken up into hostile fragments, with the necessary exposure to eternal border wars, their influence in the world as a great integral power, will be seriously impaired, and their weight as a counterpoise to England for some time at least, lost to the universal political equilibrium." Nor will the present sagacious ruler of France allow the temporary loss of a few bales of cotton and a few hogsheads of tobacco to drive him from the hereditary policy of his country, or lead him to look with indifference to any diminution of a maritime power across the Atlantic, quite as important to him as his own navy."

We cannot tell what is in the future. The people of the loyal States will stand up to their duty. They hope there will be no foreign interference, although there are traitors about who are seeking the destruction of the government and country by such interference. The quotations we have made from Mr Stark's paper show that he sympathizes with the South"—the man who would go up on his knees and pray God to paralyze our armies in the field would rejoice to see France and England, with their fleets and armies, engaged in crushing our government. That time has not yet come. We trust it never will,—and we hope if it ever does, traitors will be ousted from the country.

More Sympathy with Treason.

The "Dannite" who runs the secession organ in this city, in his sixty-sixth issue, yesterday, has a letter from Hosing Stout, formerly a representative of Oregon to Congress. This letter states several improbable things, such as his anxiety to return to Oregon, and his purpose when he gets back home to stay; but the most substantial thing in it is the following paragraph:

"This is a terrible condition into which our country has fallen. In the exercise of the right spirit last winter the whole difficulty could have been settled in two hours. I was sure then that without a compromise this would be the result."

The writer when he penned that bloody line, wrote in the interests of Maryland secessionists. The only settlement of this difficulty in two hours, last winter," which could have been made, was for the twenty millions of the North to have put themselves under the heel of the South and let the minority, a slave oligarchy of five or six millions prescribe what they may do, and how they may do it. The "right spirit" he speaks of, is the spirit of humiliation to the South. This bold turncoat and lickspittle would have the whole free North as treasonable as he has been and fall into the embraces of the Southern Delilah. His complicity with treason and traitors is evident from the last sentence. He "was sure then, that without a compromise this would be the result." Yes, he was in the interest of traitors at that time and understood their plans and he a representative from Oregon! The partaker is as bad as the thief. Our little "Dannite," the editor of the Advertiser, receives and publishes this letter without a word of dissent. He must then be held accountable for the false hood, meanness, perjury and treason, with which that small epistle of a small, weak, but miscalled "Stout," is crowded. What are the omitted parts of that letter? What treasonable information did it convey to the midnight conclave, who form the branch here, of the Knights of the Golden Circle? The friends of liberty and law cannot too closely observe traitorous facts. These Secessionists in our midst need watching, but they don't bear watching. They are organizing in secret for the overthrow of those who support the Government. Fellow citizens take warning and beware of their clap-trap twattle of "peace" and "compromise," and "war is dissolution!" Just as surely as these men in Oregon succeed in carrying their plans and purposes, Oregon will be dragged into the vortex of civil war and terrible strife. Our only fear from them is that the people of Oregon will not be fully awake to the perils of the hour, and to the schemes and plots of bold, bad men, who are acting in sympathy, if not in direct council with rebels in arms.

THE "Pure Democrat," published at Peoria, Ill. has been interdicted from the mails for treason.

HERE is an item worthy elaborate comments in Mr Stark's paper. Just think, a "Pure Democrat" thrown out of the mails for treason!—We give it as our opinion that any post master in this State has a right in his own responsibility to refuse the use of the mail for the transportation of treasonable papers, and we are sure that in doing this he would be sustained by the Government.

The Times asks—"Will Senator Stark take the oath?" We are sure he will if he can get a chance. Wasn't Toombs and Floyd under oath when they were swindling government and stealing government funds? Was it ever known that a secessionist would fail to take the oath of allegiance where money was only to be had in that way.

Mr Stark's paper says that the Democrats at the late election in Pennsylvania carried Berks county by 4 000 majority. Would Mr Stark's man dare say in that county that these democrats sympathized with the South—that they prayed for the defeat of the Government—and drank the health of Beauregard? If he should do so there, there would not be enough left of him in an hour to feed a wolf.

FROM British Columbia.—We have the Victoria Colonist of the 13th. That paper says that the previous evening the Otter arrived from Fraser river, bringing 15 passengers and—estimated—$300 000 in gold dust. The miners, with the exception of some 200 have left the Caribou country, and the reason in saying that no one should go to that region till the first of June next.

A little more than thirty years ago a writer in Blackwood's Magazine wrote in terms of denunciation of the character of Franklin because he had prophesied on one occasion, in the hearing of Englishmen, the future greatness of the United States. Looking at this Thing the philosopher said: "And is this narrow stream that is to have dominion over a country that contains the Hudson and the Ohio?" They never forgave Franklin for that question—those magnanimous Britons—and they never will.

War Events

BY MAJOR GENERAL MCCLELLAN.—A Philadelphia paper thus refers to [illegible] who now commands the forces near Harpers Ferry: "[illegible] when he left Philadelphia [illegible] black horse which he rode [illegible] like Cincinnati. [illegible] with [illegible] every day of [illegible] Mr Gray [illegible] Mr Gray [illegible] to put down the rebellion."

THE CONFEDERACY BANKRUPT.—The planters are getting quantities of [illegible] and sugar they have stored up for the confederate government, and to [illegible] their money the Richmond Examiner tells them that the Congress will pass a relief measure, seeing there is no prospect of [illegible] the steps.

PAPER FROM WOOD.—A lady just returned from one of the southeastern towns in Virginia says that all the cotton mills have been broken up long ago. The girls are in the army and the girls are at home knitting socks. That wherever you go the women, you at their doors and gates with the needle going, the servants in the house and on the plantation are equally industrious.

SINGULAR COINCIDENCE.—The New Bedford Mercury states that Mrs Samuel Frazer of Duxbury, is now engaged in knitting stockings for the soldiers in our army. She was employed eighty-five years ago in knitting stockings for the soldiers of the Revolution. She is now 99 years of age.

A SINGULAR FINANCIAL FEATURE.—There is a singular report of some hundred troubles of a very remarkable sort among the Southern merchants. When they seceded and repudiated they expected to keep all that they had, not pay to Northern creditors. To their astonishment and consternation they are now put upon such requisitions to discharge what they owe at the North, and to pay the amount over to the rebel treasury under the sequestration act. They had [illegible] ground for private enjoyment, not for public gains, and this demand drives them into close quarters. In Nashville they are reported to have had a merchant's meeting, to beg of the Confederate Government the privilege of turning over to its officers the ambulance of Northern debts in "good paper" made by their country customers. May the Confederate Government accept the offer and experts hard at collecting that paper!

A VAST GRAIN SUPPLY WANTED.—The London and Paris journals, upon a full examination of the subject, declare it to be their opinion, that from this time until the next European harvest, England and France combined will not have a daily importation of bread stuffs equal to two million seven hundred and sixty nine thousand two hundred and twenty four bushels of wheat. That amount of wheat is not in the world—after feeding the peoples of the wheat growing countries—so that maize rice, oats, etc., must be in part relied on.

CITY.

Report of the Keeper of the Penitentiary —Gentlemen of the Grand Jury: I have requested the Judge to send to you a copy of the rules and regulations for the government of the prisoners, the number of convicts in the Penitentiary, the term of sentences and name of the number of escapes since the first term of the Circuit Court of Multnomah county, A D 18[illegible]. There are three white females and one woman of color confined in the Penitentiary; they are required to approach their cells in respectful manner, and all their communications with the officers must be as brief as the rules will admit; they are not allowed to speak or converse with any person while at work unless by leave of the guard, under whose charge they are. Their whole demeanor must be in accordance with the most perfect order and strict compliance with the rules of the prison. They shall be industrious, submissive to their duties, labor diligently and in silence, or weeks days, according to their strength and ability. They all enjoy good health, and are attended when sick by Doctors Hawthorne and Boyer. Yours respectfully,

WM RAMSDELL,
Keeper of the Penitentiary.

Attached to this is a schedule, stating that there are imprisoned for life, three; for ten years, one; seven years, one; five years, four; four years, two; three years, fourteen; two years, five; one year, one.

The following prisoners have made their escape: John Evans, John Hadley and Chandler Jennings, from the sawmill, July 19th; Robert Irvin and Dave (an Indian), from the prison, August 20th; Bailey (an Indian) from the brickyard, Sept 23th; Wm. Holgate, from the sawmill, October 22d.

Pardoned by the Governor: Francisco Valardo, August 20th; Charley Roberts restored to citizenship by having remitted three days of his sentence, Sept. 10th, A S Bates, October 22d.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Olson & Huntington vs. Bark Sumpter Merryatt.—Action for towing the bark by the steamer Cowlitz. Appealed from Justice Risley, judgment affirmed against the bark and sureties on appeal bond.

In the case of the State of Oregon vs. F Patterson, a number of witnesses for whom attachments had been issued a day previous, were called at the instance of the defence, but it was ascertained that they had left on the steamer Pacific. The Court thereupon directed the prosecuting attorney to take steps to have the defaulting witnesses arraigned at the next term of Court for contempt. The rest of the day was entirely occupied in procuring additional jurors to those already obtained a day previous, making in all eleven. One more is necessary to make a complete panel. The names of the jurors now empannelled are Manuel Hammans, Dr Hartley, J D Holman, Wm. E. Jones, K. Thomas, J. Cason, David Wilson, Ira Taylor, Francis McGuire, Thompson, Thos. Hartness.

NEW POSTMASTER.—H. W. Davis, Esq., received his commission as Postmaster for this city night before last. The postoffice was removed yesterday into one of the new buildings opposite the Franklin Bookstore.

MORE CONVICTS.—Sheriff Edes, of Marion County, turned over to the keeper of the Penitentiary, last evening, two prisoners who had been sentenced by Judge Boise, at a special term of this circuit, to two and three years imprisonment for grand larceny.

STEAMERS.—The bark Jane A Falkinburg, which sailed for San Francisco yesterday, took the following as freight: 4,000 boxes apples, 2,172 sacks wheat, 1,600 sacks flour, 700 sacks oats, and twenty barrels cider.

RECEIPTS OF GOLD DUST.—Last night the Cowlitz brought down sixteen hundred dollars in Jaluit gold dust.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.—A company of U S dragoons under the command of Capt Whittlesey arrived at Fort Vancouver, per steamer Julia, last night.

The Mountaineer says a party of fifteen persons left the Dalles on Tuesday last for the John Day's river gold mines.

It is expected that the Ohio, Capt Apperson, will make her first trip from Canemah to Lafayette on Saturday next. She is a splendid boat, with an excellent captain, and all her other officers and employees, including the stewards, first rate.

The Walla Walla correspondent of the Mountaineer says:

"An express from Lieut. Mullan reached here on the 12th. It ran that the party were getting along well the Mountain road.

A party of emigrants—three families—have arrived in the valley, and had passed over the road in Bitter Root Valley. Mr Gustavus Sohon, engineer to Lieut. Mullan's party, remains as guide and interpreter through the Indian country, having been detailed for that purpose. He will rejoin the command immediately."

ONE MORE CONCESSION.—Our views in regard to what should be the nature of any further concessions, are illustrated by a conversation which is reported to have taken place between two gentlemen in an eastern city, just after the receipt of a fresh batch of "crisis" news.

"I have been studying hard," says P., "to think what concession we can make to the South more than we have already made. We have conceded every thing demanded, and everything imaginable. We have granted all they have asked politically, and as to social compromises, we have sent them preachers to tar and feather: we have given them schoolmarms to insult and even imprison; we have—In fact, I do not know what we could do for them that we have not done, and overdone."

"But I have thought of one more concession I suppose we might make," says W.

"And what is that?" anxiously demanded P.

"You observed the item in this morning's paper, that they barreled up an abolitionist, and rolled him into the Mississippi river down there the other day?"

"Yes—well?"

"Well, if that thing is to be continued, it will cost them considerable for cooperage. Don't you think we ought to make them one more concession, just for the sake of fraternal peace, and—furnish them the barrels!

GOOD ADVICE.—The Missouri Republican has the following: "A friend in Wilmington, Illinois, sends us this anecdote: 'You have heard of the arrest of Mr. Russell, the correspondent of the London Times, who was fined here a few days ago for shooting on Sunday. As he was leaving the court a good old Scotch woman put her hand on his shoulder and said to him; "Had ye been at the kirk yesterday, ye wadna been here today; and dinna be writing hame ony mair lees about the war." Of all diseases, the following are some, viz:

Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer no quack or pretender to experiment upon you in all stages of secret disease—Self-Abuse, Nervousness, Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Stricture of the Urethra, Gleet, Gravel, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Ulcers in the Throat and Nose, Diseases of the Liver, Heart, Nose and Face, Blotches on the Body or Limbs, Diseases of the Eyes, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance, and all diseases arising from a disordered state of the sexual organs—Pain in the Back, Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with pending specks appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Lassitude, Sore Throat, Pain in the Head, Face, Pimples on the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Nervousness, Sleeplessness and all impediments to Marriage, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, Exposure or Impure Connection, the above diseases require the aid of a scientific physician, one long standing, extensive practice, and who can refer to the first families in the city for the cure of the most obstinate cases that have been given up by other physicians as incurable, and who has failed to cure himself, after spending large sums of money, is not the one to consult. The most delicate diseases of females, married or single, requiring a confidential consultation, should consult the Doctor at once. Those who have been unfortunate in contracting diseases, and have been deceived by pretending Quacks, who are flooding the country with worthless nostrums, destroying the health and happiness of many families, should consult the Doctor at once. Many persons who have been under the treatment of Mercurial Quacks, have had their constitutions ruined for life, and are now suffering from Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Ulcers, Eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a life of existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, as nothing is to be found in the dread catalogue of human diseases, so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its victims, step by step, through a few years of enfeebling misery to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, weakens the energies of life causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all enjoyments of life, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils worse to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence to assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that no time is lost, speedy cure can be effected, and with the assurance of various practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Diseases, blotches and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions sent to any part of the States and Washington Territory, by patients describing their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co's Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the patients from the pangs of disease, who, having recovered their health and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedies used, and their gratitude incited by a Notary Public. The names of the respectively command their publicity, and we cheerfully commend them to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be afflicted as he has been, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the restoration to health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of unprincipled persons in youth, depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon him by the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of this gentleman, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but, alas! after a few weeks, and in several instances months, of their treatment, I found to my unspeakable horror, that instead of relief, my symptoms were assuming in their torture; and being told to marry, my disease being principally confined to the loins, it was of little consequence. I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength, nor energy; and as a last resort, with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who after examining my case, prescribed such medicine which I found instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to his directions and advice, my head became clear, my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and groins, weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the self-distrust and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of energy, the frightful exciting, and at times pleasurable, midnight followed by involuntary discharges, have disappeared, and in fact, in two months after having placed myself under the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life, that but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate from being led into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience that all cases under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

MARYSVILLE, June 2, 1861.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine and do not think I shall need more, as I feel very well except that I have not got my strength yet but soon will with the aperient. It is just three weeks you may remember since I first applied to your institute, with my constitution, as I thought, totally destroyed, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do something to ease the pain in my back and head, and strengthen my nerves, so that I would not get excited and tremble at everything. Now that you know, what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from the symptoms and the removal of those sores and blotches on my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the entire purification of those emissions, which you said were the principal cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having yet got my strength I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your fee. I think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody is benefited, you may put this letter in the papers. I remain gratefully yours, THOMAS HARVEY.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of doing what I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves mention, not only as an act of scientific skill but of humanity also. About two years ago I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me was seized with a fit of apoplexy, which, owing to my inability to meet the consequent upon a thorough medical treatment and the want of confidence which I met with, on attempting it, soon left me (I was then led to believe) no alternative but that of a physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my duties, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies I yet dreaded the miseries of my life and soon learned to look upon death as the only reader assistance or shelter me from disgrace. Many physicians who sought to probe the existence of my disease. While in this state and having previously tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to seek relief of a physician, and, by recommendation, applied upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my case, and of my inability to reward him for his services (I did so, however he at once undertook my case, and by the blessing of God, I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I now possess, and yet conscious of my indebtedness to myself, due to myself and all afflicted to make this case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
